An official selection of the Detroit Windsor Film Festival, NAKED ANGEL has already enjoyed enthusiastic response from screenings at the SAG Foundation in Los Angeles and Ann Arbor's historic Michigan Theater where it had a standing ovation from a crowd of over 800 people.

Here's what audiences are saying:

"The movie was intelligent, sophisticated and inspiring. It all came together so beautifully, and I enjoyed every moment."

"...this movie is a great story of living, loving, and believing! Visuals and special effects excite. The narrative is cleverly structured with unexpected surprises and twists..."

"This movie transcends!"

"A very authentic-feeling movie. It makes you think about what's important in life..."

"A terrific story, told with great love."

"Terrific acting, super soundtrack, and excellent locations! Cinematography is outstanding. The director takes us on an interesting ride inside the minds and hearts of some special characters. Bring kleenex."

"...looks amazing; just really hope it gets recognized properly as a masterpiece. Love it!"

"...this film is wonderfully made... a beautiful story with fantastic acting. Do everything you can to see it..."

"Artistically beautiful; there are tender moments, some that made me laugh and all-in-all the film sends a message of hope."
